Bequests and beneficiary designations are an easy way to provide future support to the University school or program of your choice. Gifts made through your will, a beneficiary designation, or other long-term plan count toward your Reunion class total.

By documenting your plans to provide future support to the University of Virginia, you can ensure that your gift will be used in accordance with your wishes and qualify for membership in the Cornerstone Society. This document does not bind you or your estate in any way.

Please describe your gift (or, if you prefer, attach a copy of your provision for UVA):

☐ Bequest in my/our will   ☐ Beneficiary designation: retirement account

☐ Bequest in my/our revocable living trust   ☐ Beneficiary designation: life insurance

How would you like UVA to use your gift? Bequests and beneficiary designations can be unrestricted, or can be designated for a specific use (for example, a scholarship or professorship). They can be directed to any of UVA's schools or programs.

Please provide an estimate of the current value of your gift to UVA and the date you created it. All such information is nonbinding and will be kept confidential.
